Director of Operations

Lachute, Quebec

Nunavut Logistic Solutions Inc. (NLS), under NCC Investment Group Inc., is seeking a Director of Operations to oversee supply chain, procurement and logistics.

The Director of Operations is responsible for ensuring the efficient supply and procurement of materials at optimal costs, tailored to the unique logistics of the northern region. This includes managing transportation and delivery schedules, with an emphasis on the timing of seasonal sealifts. The successful candidate will also be responsible for upholding process compliance and internal controls, managing project managers, project timelines and quality standards. Furthermore, the role involves leading the implementation and management of processes, technology and inventory systems to enhance operational efficiency.

The ideal candidate will bring proven leadership in logistics and procurement, particularly within northern sectors, demonstrating financial acumen and an ability to manage complex operations and material deliveries under pressure. Familiarity with northern community dynamics, technology implementation, strategic planning and construction preferred.
