The Government of Nunavut is seeking members for the Territorial Board of Revision or the Assessment Appeal Tribunal

The Territorial Board of Revision hears complaints in accordance with the Property Assessment and Taxation Act (General Taxation Area) from persons who wish to appeal their property Notice of Assessment, which informs the amount of property taxation. Appointments last for one year and may be renewed.

The Assessment Appeal Tribunal is a second level of appeal under the Property Assessment and Taxation Act. The Tribunal has jurisdiction over all of Nunavut and adjudicates complaints from persons who wish to further appeal decisions of the Territorial Board of Revision (General Taxation Area) and the municipal Board of Revision (City of Iqaluit). Appointments last for three years and may be renewed.

Interested persons should email CGSComms@gov.nu.ca with any questions. To apply, email your resume and identify the intention of your application with either the Territorial Board of Revision or the Assessment Appeal Tribunal.

Deadline to apply is July 10, 2024
