

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

KIVALLIQ

Business Development Centre

For Board Members Kivalliq Business Development Centre

Kivalliq Business Development Centre (KBDC) is seeking individuals with knowledge and experience in governance; business finance; economic development or lending, and have a passion for supporting entrepreneurs, to consider becoming a Board Director.

Headquartered in Rankin Inlet, Nunavut, KBDC is a Community Futures organization and an Indigenous Financial Institution, offering debt financing and support to businesses in Kivalliq. KBDC is governed by a seven-member, volunteer Board of Directors, with representation from across the region.

Residents of Kivalliq are invited to express their interest in a board position of this organization.

Letters or questions can be emailed to info@nunavutcfa.ca