

Call for Delegate to the Legal Services Board

Kivalliq Legal Services is the legal aid clinic for the Kivalliq Region. The Kivalliq Region legal aid clinic will send a delegate to serve on the Legal Services Board ("LSB"), which oversees the delivery of legal aid services to Nunavummiut. The Kivalliq delegate serves on the LSB for a 3 year term.

Priority consideration will be given to Nunavut Inuit.

The Candidate should be a respected member of their community with experience in justice and social issues.

LSB members must attend at least three (3) in person Board meetings and up to two (2) remote Board meetings annually. Board members selected to serve on the LSB Executive or on LSB Committees must attend at least six (6) additional meetings per year. An honorarium is paid for meeting attendance. Appointment to the LSB is made at the discretion of the Minister of Justice. Those interested should send a resume, a short expression of interest and the contact information of three references to:
