Maliiganik Tukisiiniakvik Legal Services Board Seeks a Board Member to be MT Representative for the Legal Services Board of Nunavut.

The Maliiganik Tukisiiniakvik Legal Services Board (MT) is calling for a Board member to be on the Legal Services Board of Nunavut (LSB). In order to be eligible, the individual must be prepared to also be on the MT Board of Directors.

- The MT Board which meets approximately 12 times a year in Iqaluit or if residing outside of Iqaluit to participate by teleconference/televideo conference calls.
- As the MT Board representative to the LSB, the person would need to commit to attending LSB Board meetings up to 4 times a year (up to 2-3 meetings in person plus additional meetings when required by video conference and/or teleconference).
- The MT Rep/LSB Board member would be expected to participate in one to two LSB committees which would meet an additional 4 times a year (mostly video conference and/or teleconference meetings).
- As the MT board representative to the Legal Services Board of Nunavut, the representative would be further expected to bring MT board issues to the territorial board and report back to LSB information to MT.

Please submit your resumé and/or biography and reasons for your interest to be on MT Board of Directors by January 9.
