Utility Rates Review Council (URRC)

The Nunavut Utility Rates Review Council (URRC) reviews applications from public utilities operating in Nunavut about rates and rate structure. The URRC's mandate includes such matters as long-term debt, capital expenditures, and interim rates.

The Government of Nunavut is committed to creating a representative workforce; priority will be given to Nunavut Inuit who self-identify as being enrolled under the Nunavut Agreement.

Experience and willingness to learn is accepted. We encourage you to apply if you have the equivalent experience.

The URRC is seeking candidates to serve as a Council member; we are looking for members that:

- Have business and regulatory background that would prove to be an asset to the Council's operations.
- Can commit the time to attend hearings and the time necessary to study and evaluate the matters brought before the Council.
- More information can be found on the URRC website, including both the advertisement and a description of duties of council members at www.urrc.gov.nu.ca.

For priority consideration, applicants are encouraged to identify themselves if they are beneficiaries under the Nunavut Agreement.

Compensation is as outlined under the FAM directive 810.6.6. It is $400 / day $200 / half day.

Please submit resumes to the Executive Director of the URRC at URRC@gov.nu.ca by March 1, 2026.
