

ᓄᓇᑭᓪ ᐱᓕᐱᓕᓂᓴᓪ

Nunavut Legal Aid

Nunavut Maligalikiyiit

L'aide Juridique du Nunavut

Call for Members at Large Legal Services Board of Nunavut

This is an opportunity for members-at-large to serve on the Legal Services Board of Nunavut (LSB) Territorial Board of Directors.

The candidate should be an individual who is a respected member of their Nunavut community who has experience in dealing with social justice issues. LSB members are required to attend a minimum of three (3) in-person Board meetings annually, and attendance at up to two (2) additional video-conference Board meetings may be required. Board members may be selected to serve on the executive or other committees of the board. Executive members can expect to attend an additional six (6) meetings a year. Board members are eligible for honoraria as per Government of Nunavut Directive for Public Agencies.

The LSB is mandated to ensure the provision of legal services to all eligible Nunavummiut. The Board administers the Legal Services Act and regulations and reviews legal services provided in the territory. Members can expect to work collaboratively with a team of legal professionals on the provision of legal services to Nunavummiut.

Those interested in this important work should submit their resume along with the names and contact numbers for three references to:

Teena R. Hartman, CEO

c/o Maliganik Tukisiiniakvik Legal Services

mailto: info@nulegalaid.com

www.nulegalaid.com

Submissions should be sent to the LSB by: April 10, 2026.

Copies of the Legal Services Act can be found at <https://www.gov.nu.ca/en/justice-and-individual-protection>.

Please Note: Pursuant to the Legal Services Act, members of the public service are statutorily excluded from this call as well as members of the Law Society of Nunavut.

Preference will be given to Nunavut residents, Nunavut Land Claim Beneficiaries and those with demonstrable and significant ties to Nunavut.