

The National Sixties Scoop Healing Foundation of Canada's Annual Granting Program

Support for Sixties Scoop Survivors

The National Sixties Scoop Healing Foundation of Canada supports First Nations, Métis, and Inuit Sixties Scoop Survivors through Survivor-led healing, cultural reconnection, and community-based programs across Canada — including Northern, Eastern, and remote regions.

- Full Grant application submitted for June 10, 2026
- Applications Open April 8, 2026
- LOI deadline is April 29, 2026

Annual Grant Program

Each year, the Foundation provides grant funding to Survivor-focused organizations delivering:

- Healing and wellness programs
- Cultural and land-based activities
- Elder and knowledge-keeper gatherings
- Storytelling, archives, and truth-telling initiatives

We recognize the unique realities of remote and northern communities and strive to ensure balanced national access to funding.
